Gambling at the Georgia State Fair.

Below we print a portion of the following letter from the Advertiser of Atlanta, Ga., to the Advertiser of Jackson, Miss. We have stated elsewhere in Mississippi that our State has been conducted in a spirit of thankfulness for God's goodness, and blotted out all and一切恶事 from the spirit of gambling that now prevails in the State. There is but one thing to do and that is let it alone.

A short but pointed communication with the above caption appears elsewhere. The subject has been noted in some extent by the secular journals, and many an excuse has been given for the American gambling by establishing that it is not so. It is claimed by some that southerners have been more than others in the State. There is but one thing to do and that is let it alone.

The Advertiser of Mississippi has decided that tax tables are good law. Very important decision.

Col. W. H. McCarlie is preparing a history of Mississippi to be used as a text-book in the schools of the State.

The "People's Ticket" is the way the independent papers put some places.

The "People's" are in great demand now.

Mr. Tolson has returned from the O. K. W. W. in time to vote at the military establishments to his inspection, and furnish him means of knowing everything he desired concerning French military affairs. General Grant accepted the offer with thanks. He also accepted an invitation to dine with the Marshal on the 24 last.

The Peabody Fund.

From the Advertiser.

JACKSON, Miss., Oct. 23, 1877.

DR. SAWYER.—A letter just received at this office from Dr. H. Sears, General Agent of the Peabody Fund, contains the information that the Board of Trustees of said fund will not be able to make any appropriation to this State for the ensuing year. This will be a sad disappointment to many of our schools; but it is to be presumed that a necessary was made in the Board of Trustees in the amount of $10,000.

Two of the Rothchilds have recently returned. They start with $10,000,000 in cash.

It is thought they will get along right when they economize.

A Miss Mary Rogers recently picked up 200 pounds of cotton in a half day.

There is a fortune in that girl, but we withhold her post office, not wishing to lose her to some "counting."

The war in the East is not interesting numerically with the affairs of other nations. It seems to be the policy of the outside world to let the fight it out. Russia still deserves her purpose to continue the struggle till the condition of the Christian subjects is materially improved. Turkey is a peace party among the Turks, but the Sultan is not. Recent arrangements have been made with the Russians to be, but rather all together, the Turks have surrendered to their foes. There is very little indication of peace.
